

Residence Hall Window Screen Policies -- CoVA Residential Schools Self-Reporting via VACUHO list-serv query (3.4.11)

#	School	Windows can be opened by students?	Windows with screens?	Specific details	Contact Name	Contact Email
1	Bridgewater College	Yes	Yes		Suzanna O'Driscoll	sodrisco@bridgewater.edu
2	Christopher Newport University	Yes	Yes		Andrew Sheston	asheston@cnu.edu
3	Ferrum College	Yes	Yes		Jason A. Jones	jajones@ferrum.edu
4	Greystar Management (VSU)	Yes	Yes		Yvette Edwards	yedwards@greystar.com
5	James Madison University	Yes	Yes	Ground level floors have security screens and upper level floors have insect screens.	Maggie Evans	evansmb@jmu.edu
6	Longwood University	Yes	Yes	Has electronic sensors that cut off HVAC when windows are opened to save $$.	Douglas Howell	howelde@longwood.edu
7	Old Dominion University	Yes	Yes		Lori Plants	LPlants@odu.edu
8	Randolph College	Yes	Yes	Screens cannot be opened/removed	Terry Bodine	tbodine@randolphcollege.edu
9	Randolph-Macon College	Yes	No	One building w/o AC has screens	Rodney K. Bardwell	rbardwell@rmc.edu
10	Regent University	Yes	No		Ryan Brown	rbrown@regent.edu
11	Richard Bland College	Yes	Yes		Casey Blankenship	cblankenship@rbc.edu
12	Roanoke College	Yes	No		Tess Blethyn	blethyn@roanoke.edu
13	Shenandoah University	Most	Yes		Donald Appiaris	dappiari@su.edu
14	U.Va - Wise	Yes	Yes		Angela Lemke	am17u@uvawise.edu
15	University of Virginia	Yes	Yes		John Evans	jre9s@eservices.virginia.edu
16	Virginia Tech	Yes	Yes	Bug screens in all. First floor (or accessible) windows have security screens that are more difficult to get through.	Kenneth Belcher	kbelcher@vt.edu
17	Virginia Union University	Yes	Yes/No	Buildings with windows that open up (traditional windows) have screens in the bottom to open window halfway. Buildings with windows that open out do not have screens.	Faith A. Hall	fahall@vu.edu
18	Virginia Wesleyan College	Yes	Yes	Windows in each area open differently. Some slide up and down and some crank out.	McCarren E. Caputa	mcaputa@wvc.edu
19	Washington and Lee University	Yes	Yes/No	Windows in traditional halls that slide up have screens. Some windows in the apts slide outward and do not have screens.	David Leonard	Dleonard@wlu.edu
20	William & Mary	Yes	Yes		Deb Boykin	dxboyk@wm.edu

Christendom College has windows that open and they have screens. Screens being pushed out and wind knocking them off are regular issues here.

At Liberty we stay away from screens...our newest apt style housing came with screens, but when they were blown away by wind or pushed out, we do not replace